CLASS HISTORY

We, the class of 1955, review with pride our four years at Peabody High. During our freshman year Robert Cooley was elected treasurer of the Student Council. Muriel Mitchell and Earl Penn were representatives. Taft Gilliam became president of the Art Club. Science Club members were Raymond Graves, Claudette Johnson, Ianthia Turner, Ethel Greene, Ann Simmons, Ethel Scott, Moses Ballard, Edith Robinson, Jean Edwards, Ella Byrd, Daniel Gill and Shelverden Freeman. Carl Savage was the lone member of the band.

Joseph Cooper, Rosemary Young, Juanita Henderson, Muriel Goode and Mary Love were members of the choir. Ianthia Turner, Shelverden Freeman, Claudette Johnson, Ethel Greene and Edith Robinson were Polygon Club members. William Roberts joined the Safety Patrol. Muriel Mitchell, Edith Robinson and Eunice Blakes selected the New Home-makers of America for their club.

Class officers who served us in our sophomore year were Ann Simmons, president; John Piercy, vice-president; Ianthia Turner, secretary; and Raymond Graves, treasurer. John Piercy was also a member of the Journalism Club. Participants on the football team were Cyril Hawkins and James Johnson. William Gee and Wilbert Stewart joined the basketball team. William Anderson became a member of the baseball team. Rosemary Young led the school in lusty cheers at our football games. Muriel Goode, Juanita Henderson, Gloria Brown, Eva Dillard and Yvonne Horton were members of the Library Club.

Our junior year was full of surprises and presented us with bright new fields to conquer. Rose Reid entered the State Oratorical Contest in Richmond and won third place. Shelverden Freeman and Lula Ryals represented us in the "Miss Homecoming" contest. Lula won second place and Shelverden, third.

Barbara Rice, Eunice Blakes and Ann Simmons joined the girls' basketball team and all of us were overjoyed when Barbara was named the most outstanding player on the team. Shelverden Freeman represented us at the annual Art Exhibit at Virginia State College. In November, Gloria Brown and Juanita Henderson participated on the Book Week program presented by members of the Library Club. Juanita Henderson was the first place winner of the "I Speak for Democracy" Contest for Peabody and the second place winner for the city.

In the spring of the year the Dramatics Club presented a thrilling play in the Dramatics Tournament at Virginia State College. Shelverden Freeman was secretary of the club at that time. Edith Robinson, Moses Ballard, Robert Cooley and Melvin Saunders participated in the play.

Ernestine Bugg, Rose Reid, Muriel Mitchell, Iretha Goode, Lloyd Mitchell, Shelverden Freeman, Edith Robinson and Eunice Blakes became members of the band. Rosemary Young was one of the performers when the Modern Dance Group gave its annual recital.

One of the most exciting projects of our junior year was entertaining the seniors at the annual Junior Senior Prom. Our theme, "Moonlight and Roses" was beautifully carried out. The decorations were breathtaking, the music was soft and sweet and the gowns all seemed to possess a fairy-like sparkle and shimmer.

Our senior year has been our most exciting year. Lula Ryals was an attractive and poised "Miss Homecoming of 1954". The band won first place in the Christmas parade. Among the nattily dressed marchers were Ernestine Bugg, Lloyd Mitchell, Edith Robinson, Shelverden Freeman and Rose Reid.

Ernestine Bugg and Ianthia Turner were presented at the annual Debutante's Ball held at Virginia State College. Ernestine, third place winner, was second lady-in-waiting to the queen. Claudette Johnson was elected president of the senior class and Student Council.

On Senior Day the seniors were presented in all of their glory to parents, teachers, friends and the student body. Ann Simmons was crowned "Miss Senior" by Claudette Johnson, president of the class. Her attendants were Ethel Greene, Muriel Mitchell, Rosemary Young and Lillie Kizzie. "Miss Senior" and her court made a striking picture in their beautiful pastel gowns in shades of yellow and blue. After the auditorium program which was presided over by Edith Robinson and Mary Myrick the seniors visited various departments of the school for consultation and discussions on their desired college courses and careers.

The activities of the Art Club were directed by Shelverden Freeman, president; Ann Simmons, secretary and James Mason, reporter. Cyril Hawkins was captain of the football team and James Johnson, co-captain. Cyril was the most outstanding player on the team. Earl Penn and Moses Ballard also represented us on the gridiron.

Our three act senior class play, "Girl Shy", was a huge success with Earl Penn and Taft Gilliam in the leading roles. Other participants who gave outstanding performances were Muriel Mitchell, Rose Reid, Rosemary Young, Melvin Saunders, Shelverden Freeman, Cyril Hawkins, Mary Myrick, Moses Ballard, Edith Robinson and Raymond Graves.

Our days have swiftly flown and we leave behind us our glorious high school years. To you who remain we give this thought, "May your days at Peabody be as full and inspiring as those spent here by the class of 1955".

ADIEU PEABODY HIGH

Peabody High is the school we love,
Its clear and shining light
Has been to us a beacon star,
Guiding us aright.

We sigh to think that we must part
And leave our love behind -
You to whom we owe so much
Of thought and deed and mind.

Though the time has come for us to part,
To thy memory we'll be true.
Believe in us Peabody High,
And we'll be loyal to you.

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS.....!

On a Job Well Done

You're ready to take over a new job helping to make this great country of ours a better place to live in. You can be thankful for free schools and the opportunity you will have for service, and all the other freedoms that are part of the American way of life. You can be thankful that this is not subject to the restraints of "isms" and ideologies and regimentations that exist in other lands in other parts of the world.

There's a big job ahead of you, Good Luck!
